“THE KOOTENAY (BRITISH COLUMBIA)
SMELTING AND TRADING SYNDI-CATE, LIMITED,” (FOREIGN).

REGISTERED THE 4TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1889.

Certificate of Registration.

THIS is to certify that I have this day registered “The Kootenay (British Columbia) Smelting and Trading Syndicate, Limited,” (Foreign), under the “Companies’ Act,” Part IV., Registration of Foreign Companies.

The objects for which the said company is established are:—

(a.) To erect smelting works at Revelstoke or Golden City, or other places in the Kootenay District, or elsewhere, on or near the Canadian Pacific Railway, and thereby or otherwise to obtain from the Government of the Dominion of Canada, and any Government or Municipal or local authority, or from any company or companies, or person or persons, concessions and grants of land, rights and privileges for building and other purposes, and all bonuses, whether in the form of land or currency, or partly in land and partly in currency, that may be offered by the Government of the Dominion of Canada or the Government of British Columbia, and generally to acquire in the said District or elsewhere, estates, properties, rights and privileges of every description.

(b.) To acquire mining properties and claims, or shares or other interests in such properties or claims, in the said Kootenay District or elsewhere in British Columbia, and to investigate and explore any such properties or claims before acquiring any interest therein, and to develop and work, or re-sell and dispose of the same, and to act as agents for procuring and selling concessions, claims, properties and rights of all descriptions in British Columbia.

(c.) To work gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal and other mines, and mining rights and minerals, under or upon any lands in the said District or elsewhere in British Columbia, whether belonging to the company or not, and generally to carry on the business of mine owners and lessees, and to crush, wash, smelt, reduce and amalgamate the ore, and render marketable, and sell or dispose of the produce and develop the resources of any such mines, and to purchase or otherwise acquire ores and other minerals for the purpose of crushing, washing, smelting, reducing and amalgamating the same or otherwise for the purposes of the business of the said company, and to crush, wash, smelt, reduce and amalgamate such ores or other minerals, when so purchased or acquired and to render the same marketable, and to sell or dispose of the produce of the same, and in general, to carry on the business of smelters and mill workers.

(d.) To develop and lay out for building and other purposes, and to build upon or grant building leases of any lands and properties to be granted to or acquired by the company, or any other lands or townsites in the district aforesaid, and to drain, clear, plant, farm and improve any of such lands for agricultural or other purposes, and for the purposes aforesaid, to purchase from time to time such horses, cattle and stock, and employ such labour, and from time to time to sell all or any part of the live or dead stock, timber, crops and other the produce of the said lands, and generally to buy, sell, and deal in goods and produce of every description.

(e.) To erect, establish, construct, or acquire by purchase or otherwise, work and use all works, buildings, houses, fences, reservoirs, tanks, railways, tramways, sewers, water-courses, telegraphs, telephones, steamers, barges, boats, rafts, machinery, apparatus and other things which may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of developing any of the said lands or other purposes of the company, and to erect, stock, and carry on any shops or stores.

(f.) To construct or aid in and subscribe towards the construction, maintenances, and improvement of roads, water-works, canals, tramways, railways, and other roads and ways, quays, and wharves, telegraphs, telephones, steamers, barges, boats, machinery, and other works and undertakings useful for the purposes of the company, or for access to and from the lands, works, and properties of the company, or to connect the same with other lines of communication in or at any port, place, river or other outlet for traffic.

(g.) To purchase, take on lease, or exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, and any roads, water-rights, easements, and privileges, together with any patents, rights, plant, and stock in trade, necessary or convenient for the purposes of the company.

(h.) To purchase the goodwill or any interest in any trade or business of a similar nature to any part of the trade or business of the company, and to make and carry into effect any amalgamation of interests in whole or in part, or other arrangements for sharing profits or otherwise with any other companies, partnerships, or persons, whether formed in this country or elsewhere.

(i.) To issue shares in the company, fully or partly paid up as consideration for any property acquired by or services rendered to the company in or about the acquisition of any property, concessions or privileges for the company or the promotion of the company or otherwise.

(j.) To take by subscription, purchase, or otherwise, and hold shares or stock in any company formed in this country or in the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere, in which the liability of members shall be limited to the amount of their shares or stock, and having objects or purposes similar to those of the company or any of them, or calculated to benefit the property or business of the company.

(k.) To raise money in such manner as the company shall think fit, and as security for any moneys borrowed, or any other consideration, to issue debentures charged upon all or any of the company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and either as a floating security or not, and to make, accept, endorse, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments.

(l.) To sell, mortgage (as security for any debenture, debt or otherwise), lease, or otherwise dispose of all or any of the property of the company for any consideration, including shares in or securities of any other company, whether formed in this country or the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, or to divide (among the members so far as the law allows) exchange, mortgage or otherwise deal with the same, and to contract for the development and working of any part or parts thereof by separate companies, partnerships or persons.

(m.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property rights and liabilities of this company or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to the interests of this company, and to assist, subscribe to, and co-operate with or become members of any syndicate which may be formed for the purposes of obtaining and dealing with any concessions or other property.

(n.) To incorporate or register the company in Canada or elsewhere, and to keep in that colony any branch register of members.

(o.) To do all such other acts and things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and also such additional objects as the company may from time to time by special resolution determine.

The amount of the capital stock of the said company is £40,000, divided into 3,990 ordinary shares of £10 each, and ten founders shares of £10 each.

The place of business of the said company is located at Revelstoke, Province of British Columbia.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed my seal of office this 4th day of November, 1889, at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

no8 Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

EXTRACTS FROM RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF COMMONS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

ALL applications for Private Bills require a notice over the signature and address of the applicants or their solicitors, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, published by advertisement as follows, viz.:—In the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, District, Union of Counties or Territory, affected by the proposed measure, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest County, District or Territory in which a newspaper is published. In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba the notices must be published in the like manner in the English and French languages. All notices shall be continued for a period of at least two months during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition. Marked copies of the newspapers, endorsed "Application for Private Bill," containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

In the case of an application for the erection of a toll bridge the notice shall also state the proposed rates of toll, the nature of the structure, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers, etc.

A copy of the Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House in which the bill is to originate at least eight days before the meeting of Parliament, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same; and a further sum of two hundred dollars and the cost of printing the Act with the Statutes will be levied immediately after the second reading of the bill.

Petitions for Private Bill must be presented in each House within the first ten days, and Private Bills within the first two weeks, of each Session.

EDOUARD J. LANGEVIN,
Clerk of the Senate.
JNO. GEO. BOURINOT,
Clerk of the House of Commons.

EXTRACTS FROM SPECIAL RULES OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Private Bills shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such bills.

Private Bills in amendment of Acts, or for Acts incorporating railway companies, shall be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill adopted by the House, copies of which may be obtained from the Clerk.

Provisions varying the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets and, when revised by the proper officer, shall be so printed.

Sections of existing Acts proposed to be amended shall be reprinted in full, with the amendments inserted in their proper places and between brackets.

Private Bills which are not drawn in accordance with these rules shall be returned to the promoters to be re-cast before being revised and printed.

Exceptional provisions shall be clearly specified in the notice of application.

A certified map or plan showing the location of any proposed line of railway, also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting, the district which the proposed work is intended to serve, and an exhibit showing the amount of capital proposed to be raised for the undertaking, and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same shall be filed with the Railway Committee at least one week before the consideration of the bill.

JNO. GEO. BOURINOT,
oc10 Clerk of the House of Commons.
